

I do not like being advertized to unless I have chosen to be advertized at as is the case with radio and TV. Any telephone marketing is one sided since I have no choice but to be disturbed. I pay for having a phone and would like the right to decide who may and may not call. Specifically the NJ 'do not call' program is fair and to be supported.